-A Chinese fish company in San Fran cisco have been supplying customers with trout for some time past. The fish were sold by the pound. Lately the fish got into the habit of swallowing such innutritious substances as scrap iron, &c., thereby it many instances almost doubling their weight. At leas the fishermen disclaim all knowledge of the mystery.

-Through efforts of persons interested in experimental tea culture, several specimens of th soil in which the plant is raised have been secured an brought to this country. An exhaustive analysis o their constituent elements will at once be made, the object being to see wherein American soils are deficient and, if possible, to supply the wanting elements by arti called upon a wealthy member of the congregation soliciting a subscription toward a new house of wor-ship. The sum he subscribed disappointed them, and they told him so, at the same time intimating that Me J— had given double the amount. "So he should, said the wily gentleman," he goes to church twice a -" Madame," said a boarder to a land-

-The white residents of the Feejee Isl ands recently declined to comply with the laws which they themselves had made for the government of the Kingdom. Thereupon King Thakombau told then that if they refused to obey their own statutes he would return to the old cannibal code, which provided that an offender, white or black, should just be knocked on the head and then roasted and eaten.

-According to the Avenir of Rennes, at one of the recent fairs held in Châteanneuf-sur-Cher, farmer sold an ox to a but her, who paid him the pric agreed in bank bills. The animal, with a single strok of the tongue, licked up the bank notes from the han of his owner and swallowed them. The seller, ther fore, refused to deliver the ox, alleging that the buye ought to bear the loss of the swallowed bills.
secording to the Avenir, is yet to be decided.

-Every few days there is some new evi-dence that nearly every useful product can be found or can be raised within the boundaries of the United States. The mesquito gum of Western Texas is almost identical with gum Arabic, and during the past year has become an article of export, some 12,000 pounds having been gathered in Bexar county, and as much more between that and the coast. This gum exudes from the stems and branches of a mimosa, severa cies of which grows in Texas, New Mexico, and -What will we do with the blanketsheets? has been a puzzling question for years. A year's file of an ordinary four cent daily is a serious ob-struction in a moderately-sized house withou a bar-attached. The conundrum is answered. A lady and gentleman were recently robbed in Judea by Arabe, who stripped them of all their clothing. They begged their captors to return them a copy of the London Times The Arabs yielded to the request, and the pair, the gen tleman attired in the regular issue, and the lady in the weeather of the early summer the costume must have been at once light, airy, and pleasantly-uggestive o nome associations. Might not the blanket-sheets which subscribers throw away after glancing at the first page besent as clothing to the naked Feejecans and Hotten tots? Let the good work at once be begun. Here is a
